

Payment Methods for the Bicentennial Campaign

General Information:

Payments of any kind are deposited into The Catholic Community Foundation of South Carolina. Any questions and/or for assistance should be directed to the Diocese of Charleston - attention:

Anne Durney: (843) 261-0437 or email: adurney@charlestdiocese.org

Check Payment:

- Please make the check payable to:

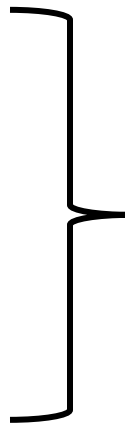

The Catholic Community Foundation of South Carolina – Bicentennial Campaign

- The check should be mailed to:

*Bicentennial Campaign Office
P. O. Box 31257
Charleston, SC 29417*

Electronic Giving:

- Bank accounts, automatic drafts
- Credit card, automatic payments
- Other Ways of Giving
- Gifts of Stock
- IRA Disbursements

To get set up with any of these options, please call Anne Durney, Senior Development Assistant at the Diocese of Charleston, at 843-261-0437.

Electronic giving is a very helpful option, and it helps make life easier for our collection counters and our parish bookkeeper.

Online Donations using the Bicentennial Campaign Link:

- May be used for one-time gifts or pledges with monthly payments. There are no options for quarterly, semi-annual, or annual payments online.
- All monthly payments are processed on or around the 15th of each month. Any monthly pledges will have the first payment charged on the next upcoming date near the 15th of the month.

Pledge Reminder Notices:

- These notices are not “bills.” They are simply meant as reminder notices. Payments may be made on the schedule that best suits you.
- All pledges that are NOT credit card or direct debits will receive pledge reminders with a pre-addressed return envelope depending upon the payment schedule that was originally selected (monthly will receive monthly notices, quarterly will receive quarterly, etc.).
- No pledge reminder notices will be sent for those employing electronic fund transfer processes (credit cards or direct debits).
